Just another day at WHS

Girls lead us to victory

Staters know what it takes

This year's starters know what it takes to run a government. Doug Conatser, Joe Karam, Tom Harris, and Nick Kretsedemas attended Boys State this summer from June 1-8 at NAU. Among the guest speakers were Governor Bruce Babbitt and Flagstaff Mayor Paul Babbitt. The organizations that sponsored the young men were Kiwanis, Rotary, and Elks. "To get anywhere in government, you should know about parliamentary procedures," commented Joe.

The two delegates that attended Girls State, which was held at U of A from June 11-18, were Martha Hernandez and Darnell Scott. They were both exposed to the different aspects of government life.

Darnell said she had a lot of fun and learned much about government life, while on the other hand, Martha said, "It was a neat experience and I'd like to do it again sometime."

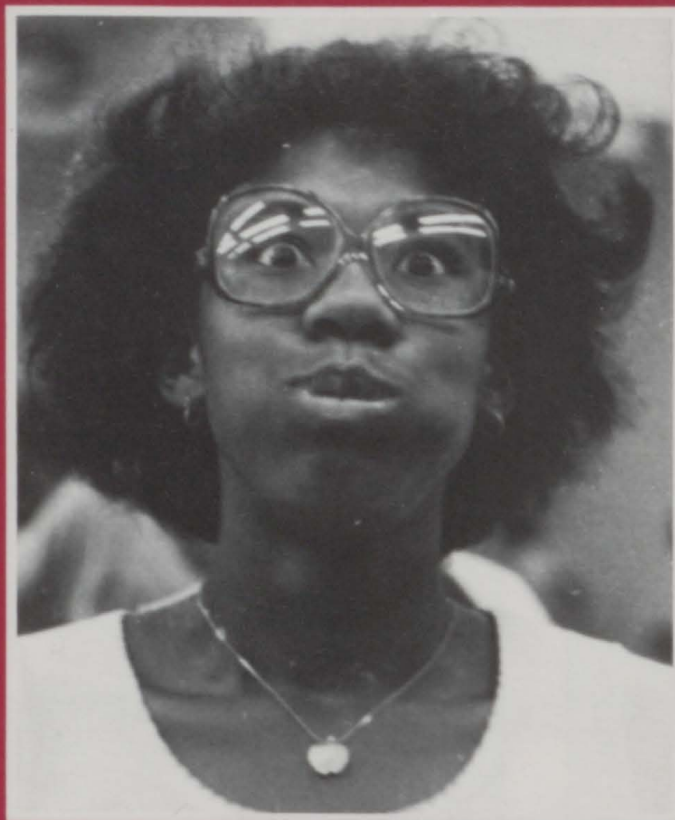

Homecoming 1980

The excitement of the 1980 Homecoming, "One in a million," came to its peak when Amy Haydukovich and Wayne Garner were crowned Homecoming Queen and King. Kim O'Haco, Tommy Hardy, Dee Dee Williams, Mark Stewart, Tony Lomeli, Tandra Sluga, David Hanson and Lisa Hatch served as attendants to the king and queen. Reverend Grover Cleveland McKay was announced the Homecoming Dedicatee. Julien Magallanez and Rochelle Crosswhite served as the crownbearers.

Strike up the band

The WHS Marching Band has been kept active throughout the year playing in concerts and helping to keep the spirit alive at such events as football and basketball games. They also participated in the Homecoming parade and were one of five bands invited to attend NAU's homecoming, which was a great honor because they were selected on the basis of how well they play. The band consisted of 72 members and was under new direction this year by Mr. Ronald Bowen. This year's drum major and majorette were Jim Alexander and Tina Bell, LaWana Fulton was the returning twirler. Along with the Meteorettes, these bandleaders helped keep halftime activities enjoyable throughout the year.

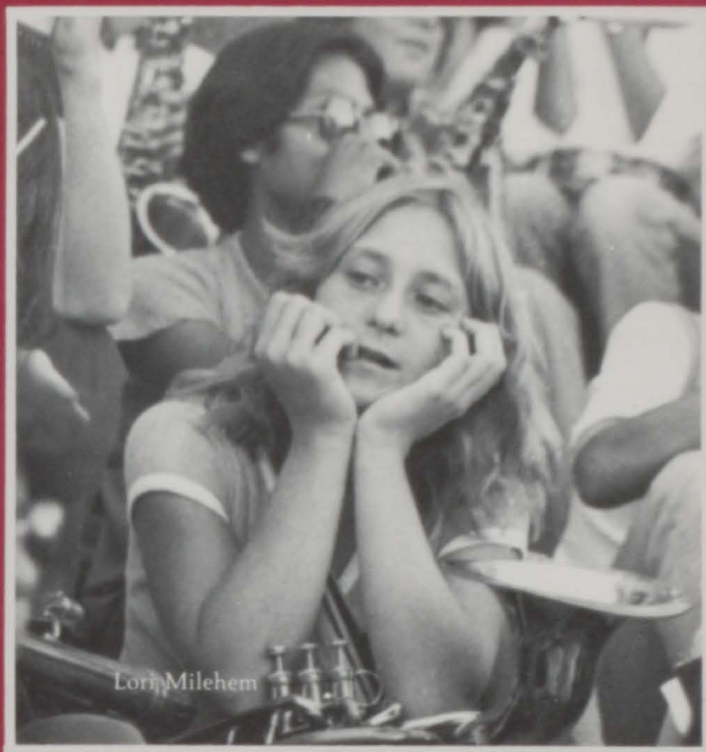

Pep come on now, pep a little

WHS spirit is shown here expressed in many different ways. From cheerleaders to matmaids to the pep band, the school spirit it increased greatly over the past years. It is this spirit that boosted the teams to their victorious ways. The classes competed with each other as to who had the most spirit. The seniors won the contest and were given spirit fingers as a prize.

Students at WHS made a go of it this year. They went from learning how to cheer, to making metal boxes, from learning to drive, to learning how to make carbon copies. This is not always easy, though; it takes perseverance as shown here by these students.

ORGANIZATIONS

DON'T ASK ME WHY

I move that . . .

Through many long lunch hours and several times after school, the student council met to advance student participation and involvement. Many petitions were moved and passed by Winslow's student leaders. Among them were petitions for dances, bake sales, and the purchases of awards and prizes for athletic competitions. Martha Hernandez, left, led the meetings with the support of the other student body officers. On Mondays when most people are out to lunch, these people are designating and planning the use of the student funds for the enjoyment of their fellow schoolmates. Through the year many assemblies were organized with the council's aid.

Key Club had their annual Kiwanis pancake breakfast held in November. They also sponsored the sweetheart dance held in March.

Pictures bring things alive

The publications, The Meteor, the Bulldog Barks, the Winslow Mail, would be so lifeless without pictures. These people, the 1981 WHS photographers, have dedicated many hours into bringing the Winslow publications alive with the talented art of pictures. While most enjoy pep rallies, assemblies, and club activities, so do these photographers, but from behind the lens of a camera.

We write the perfect story

The Bulldog Barks journalism staff was guided by Dwayne Cassidy and Corrine Rodriguez who served as the editors for the first and second semester respectively. The business manager was Debra Harms. The staff members attended the state convention of the Arizona Interscholastic Press Association in Chandler, Arizona, during October. They attended workshops conducted by professionals from the world of publishing arts.

Deadlines! We tried and tried, but missed a few

The most terrifying monsters that the staff of the Meteor had to face were the ferocious deadlines that kept galloping over the horizon. The staff put up a terrific fight, and although some of the deadlines won the battle, the staff won the war. In the Meteor the staff has tried to cover all important events and capture the spirit of 1980-81 so that the owners of these books will always be able to recall the experiences they had while attending Winslow High School. Corrine, Joe, Greg and Martha attended the fall convention of the Arizona Interscholastic Press Association where they gathered new ideas for the book and met old friends. This year the staff plans to have an index which will be part of the summer supplement. Ten members made the 1981 staff one of the largest for many years, and a transfer student, Carole Jackson, a sophomore member which was unusual as students have to be juniors and seniors to enroll in the class.

Under the direction of Mr. Samuel Shires Winslow High School vocalists were divided into three groups. Besides the full chorus there was the girls ensemble and the Chamber Singers, both of which entertained at programs and before local organizations.

... with the strings

The WHS Orchestra might not be the Phoenix Symphony, but they try just as hard. In January the members participated in the State Solo & Ensemble Festival and All-Region tryouts, which were in March. They also attended the All-State tryouts, which were held at NAU in April.

The Verla Oare Chapter of the National Honor Society added 20 new members at its annual induction on October 22. President Barbara Clubbs led the ceremony.

Media is the most

Quill and Scroll is an honorary society for high school journalists and members must have done some kind of work in media. Quill and Scroll spent most of the year raising money to take a trip to Phoenix to tour the Arizona Republic. The club was busy planning potlucks and chowing down, which they did most of the time.

Members gathered around the marquee, bottom, are top row, Greg Vance, Stephanie Conway, secretary-treasurer, Janet Pavatea, Darnell Scott, Joe Karam, president; middle row, Nancy Ahrens, Lisa Kenna; bottom row, Debra Harms, Martha Hernandez, Corrine Rodriguez, historian, Christine Bozarth, and Sheila Powell. AFS get new start

There was a new addition to our line of clubs this year called AFS (American Field Service). AFS was designed to motivate students to learn about international relations and different cultures throughout the world. The club was busy raising money to help finance exchange students to and from WHS. Although AFS is a new club, the membership this year was very successful. Members of the club are (clockwise from top) Mary Shumway, Chris Gonzales, Brenda Kincaid, Gudule Geelen, president, Miss Terry, sponsor, Ermalinda Yazzie, Karen Scott, Angel Cruz, Seraphine Lee, Janet Pavatea, secretary, Barbara Clubbs, Darnell Scott, vice president, Stephanie Whitman, historian, and Lois Reynosa, treasurer, (not pictured)

1981 METEOR DEDICATEE

We, The Meteor Staff, are proud to dedicate the 1980-81 yearbook to its very own advisor, Mrs. Frances Roberts. Although we picked her for the dedicatee, she had no knowledge of her being the one that was chosen. Mrs. Roberts has received her Master of Arts Degree in 1976 and majored in English. Playing the guitar and singing folk songs, are just a few of the many talents she has hidden. She has taught at WHS for 10 years and is retiring at the end of this school year. She has two children, her husband Clarence, and is a member of the Planing & Zoning Committee. As a teenager, Mrs. Roberts once rode a horse from Williams, Arizona, all the way to Camp Verde, Arizona. After her retirement, she and her husband are moving to Albuquerque, New Mexico. We, the staff, wish to express our appreciation for all she has done for the Bulldog Barks, the yearbook, and for our school. P.S. We fooled you Mrs. Roberts, didn't we! Sly aren't we?

All of Chess Club's varsity team were returning members from last year. They were, in order of their seats, Steve Martinez, Greg Vance, Ed Kenna, Mike Kirby and Alex Ray. Last spring a state qualification tournament was held in Winslow. Steve qualified to go to state in that meet. This year's team did quite well in tournaments.

"We raised money by having Indian taco and other bake sales," stated Seraphine Lee. The money raised was for sponsoring trips to learn more interesting things about the Indian cultures. The club began with the election of officers who were Seraphine Lee, chosen as president, and Debbie Secakuku who held the office of vice president. Lois Reynosa and Angel Cruz held the offices of secretary and treasurer. Lois Reynosa and Marvin Etsitty were chosen as prince and princess who rode in the Many Feathers float during the Christmas parade.

Royalty can do it right

The classes gathered $1349.28 worth of canned goods in support of their candidates for Christmas Royalty. Juniors Myla Astorga and Eddie Fritz were crowned queen and king with their class bringing in $480.48 worth of canned goods; seniors came in second with $347.81; sophomores came in third with $319.64, while the freshmen brought in $201.35. The canned goods was used for the Elks Club Christmas baskets for the needy.

The year there was no snow

Ski Club had no problems with slippery icy roads or frostbite; in fact the biggest problem they faced was the lack of snow. Snow, the one thing many dread, was what these people hoped for. Some of the ski buffs were discouraged with a record low of snow, but attempted a few outings anyway. The season was cut even shorter when slopes at the Snow Bowl and Sunrise closed down in early March putting an end to the skiers nightmare of scratched and dulling skies. Even though the ski resorts have the capability of making man made snow they were still unable to compensate for the unseasonably warm temperatures. Through the coldest parts of the winter the resorts were not able to run at full capacity with only a few lifts operable.

The 1st place Elks Youth Foundation Scholarship-Leadership for most valuable student award was taken by Debra Harms who received a $300 bond. Barbara Clubbs placed 2nd and was awarded a $150 bond. Kiki Kretsedemas and Darlene Natsaway tied for 3rd place and each received a bond for $75. Winners below are Kiki Kretsedemas, Debra Harms, Darlene Natsaway, and Barbara Clubbs.

Cast of "The Waiting Room"

"The Waiting Room," directed by Mr. Robert Howell, proved to be the best of four one-act plays when it took first place. The winning performers of this excellent play are pictured at the right. Charlotte Herzog reigned over the plays as the best actress, and Robert Howell took the honor of being named as the best actor. Pictured at the bottom of this page are the cast members of "A Date for Bobby Sox", which placed second. On the next page, the third and fourth place plays are shown. They are "The Ghost Wore White" and "French Toast." The cast members not pictured are: Sam Kerzel, Clint Morgan, Derek James, Donald Payton, and Mark Holman.

Working with the magic touch

"Mr. Howell did an outstanding job of directing this play," stated one of the passing actors. Indeed it was a fine play although the first act was cut out of the performance for the high school students. The actors showed their appreciation by giving Mr. Robert Howell a token of their gratitude.

The Magic Touch touched home with many of its viewers by showing some of the problems which occur in society today. The cast thought the plot was a little "heavy" for a comedy, but did enjoy participating in it.

Actors, clockwise starting at right, include the hired help played by Ed Kenna, as Willie; Dianna Dinger, Ophelia; Rhonda McAdams, Mrs. Washington; and Jeff Hancock, Squint. The models for the fashion show are standing: Sheila Robinson, Lisa Kenna and Jacquelyn Johnson; sitting, LaWana Fulton, Susan Moyers and Mary Shumway. Chris Bozarth as Miss Blodgett points a finger at Lisa Kenna who plays a student, Frieda Fisher. Elaine Wyrick adds a last bit of makeup and Jim Good is the voice of the radio. The models, Sheila, Lisa and Susan, prepare for the show. The "snobs" study psychology as Kristi Vance plays Mrs. Stockdale; Susan Moyers, Mrs. Poo; and Elaine Wyrick, Mrs. Clarence. Leading actors were LaWana Fulton as Bobby Braddock; Robert Howell, Socko; Barbara Clubbs, June Braddock; and Chris Gonzales, Robert Braddock. Football players ready for another game are Robert Howell; Larry Martinez as Chuck; and Roland Walker as Hank.

The junior class made its mark by coming in fourth place during the Homecoming Parade float contest. But they did bounce back by coming in first in the Christmas Royalty contest. Among the other activities the juniors put on the Junior-Senior Prom and ran the concession stand during the basketball and wrestling season.

Sophomores take it easy

The sophomores at WHS are part of an elite group. Below, are pictured some of the sophomores doing their own thing. This year the sophomores came in second in the float contest with a scoreboard on which the Bulldogs scored a million to zero. Placing third, the sophomores managed to raise $319.64 for Christmas Royalty. All in all, the sophomores had a pretty successful year and above all had a good time doing it.

Participation in activities gives Henry honored status

Henrique Santiago Marquez was very active in sports during his four years in high school, participating in baseball four years, and wrestling and football three years. He was in W-Club and Honor Society during his senior year. He also was very supportive of his class projects such as decorating floats and helping at the concession stand. Because he was very active and did a lot to win the Bulldogs honors, the staff proudly elected Henry Marquez as 1980-81 Annual King.

Effie Ruth Tawahongva was in Indian Club and chorus during her senior year in high school. She had been a member of Art Club her junior year. She worked on decorating floats and in concession stands for her class throughout her years at WHS. Effie lived at the dormitory and was said to be very helpful and always around when needed. Because she was helpful and active, the staff of the Meteor proudly elected Effie Tawahongva as 1980-81 Annual Queen.

Willingness, Helpfulness and Service win title for Effie.

CELEBRATION

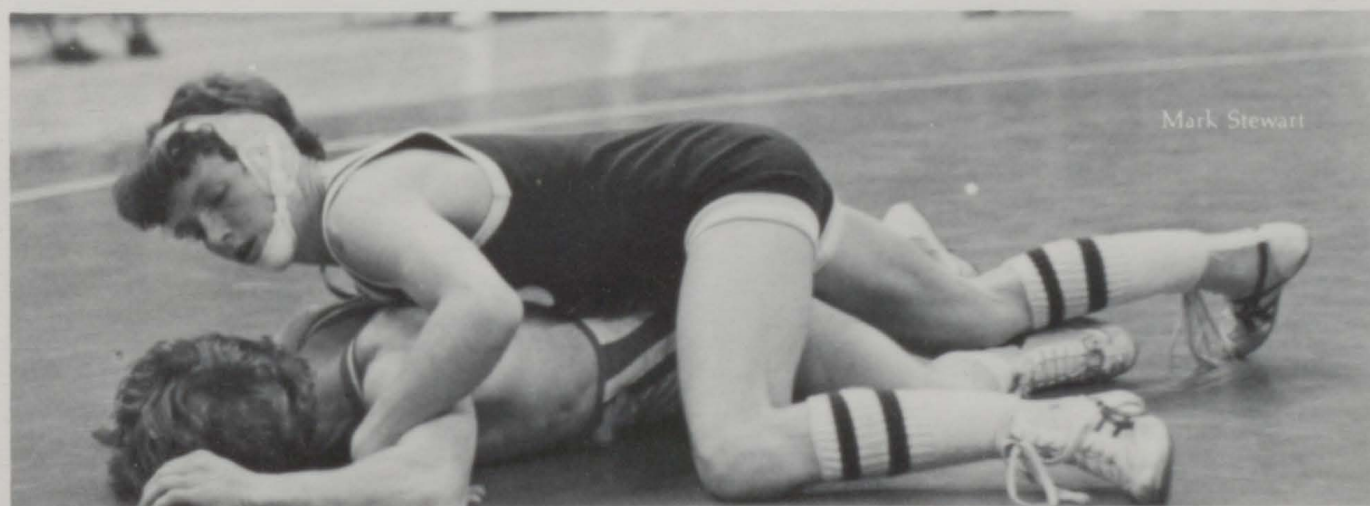

Making our dreams come true

Determination and superior effort lead the Varsity wrestlers to an undefeated season. They proved themselves invincible by coming in first in all of their meets, and invationals and finally coming in first as Divisional and State Champions.

Not only did the team take first at State but they had four individuals who took state in their weight class. Claiming the titles were Henry Marquez, Wayne Garner, Eddie Fritz and Herbert Grey.

The Bulldogs had a great season. They started out by defeating a tough Holbrook team. They wound up with a seven win, two loss, one tie record including 3 shut-outs which placed them 3rd in conference. They lost hope for the state play-offs when they were defeated by last year's AA State Champs, Flagstaff Eagles, 24-12. Bulldog members named to the all conference team were Wayne Garner, Tom Hardy, and Tony Lomeli, 1st team defense; Victor Flemons and Mike Moyers, 1st team offense; Mark Stewart, Bobby Burrage and Felix Guerrero, honorable mention.

The Boys Cross Country team had a fair season with its three outstanding runners: Reggie Franklin, Ron Laban, and Jeff James, who led the Bulldogs throughout the season. In bigger meets, such as the Mingus, Peaks, and Winslow Invationals, Winslow placed third, fourth, and sixth, respectively. The best meet all season was the Thunderbird Invitational in Phoenix. Winslow placed 8th out of the 46 schools which attended the meet. At the division meet in Tuba City, WHS team placed 3rd, which didn't qualify them for the state meet. The season's total showed the boys didn't do too bad, winning a total of 85 times and losing only 26.

It takes lots of sole

The varsity girls cross country team had a fairly good year, placing on and off throughout the season. After doing exceptionally well at the Thunderbird Invitational, coming out sixteenth out of thirty-six teams, they went to divisionals a week later hoping to do just as well and make it to state. Unfortunately they came out fifth which wasn't good enough to take them to State.

Carole Jackson

This year's varsity Volleyball team coached by Liz Wennet had a slow start but soon worked their way up to first place position before the beginning of the AA North divisionals. Here, although being defeated in a hard fought match against Window Rock, they came out second, and that was good enough to take them to state. Five out of six starters for Winslow made the conference teams. Barbara Powell made first All Conference, and second team All State, Ceta Begay made first All Conference while Carole Jackson, and Kim O'Haco made second All Conference and Henrietta Padilla made Honorable Mention.

Seniors to graduation

The varsity basketball team was a young and rebuilding team that started the season facing a lot of tough teams. The Bulldogs went through the season with a lot of intensity and team spirit, losing some close heartbreakers by a few points. They placed third at the Holbrook Christmas Invitational losing to a fired-up team from Alchesay. Named to the Honorable Mention All-Tournament team were Charles Wilhoite and Steven Shirley. The Bulldogs went to the District tournament with a 9-12 record which placed them in a tough Spot having to play Coconino who was ranked No. 2 in the North. They lost hope to go to the state play-offs after losing a hard-fought game, 50-55. Named to the All Conference team were Charles Wilhoite, 1st team and Steven Shirley, honorable-mention. The guys ended their season with a 9-13 record and will lose only two starting seniors next season. Coach Bratt stated that they are looking forward to a great season next year, with some great returning ball players.

The girls varsity basketball team started out slow being defeated by Corona Del Sol in their first game of the season, 31-50. They came back to win most of the remaining games and took a hard fought second place in the McDonald's Christmas Classic, Winslow's first annual, being defeated by a tough Round Valley team. The girls went on to capture a 7-1 conference record and their third consecutive Divisional Championship. They took a home court advantage in the first round of the State Play-offs, overwhelming a tall Dysart team, 47-32. Their win sent them to the State semi-finals where they lost a 3 point heart breaker to the #1 Central team, Marana Tigers.

Members of the Bulldog squad named to the All Conference team are Kim O'Haco-Honorable Mention, Cita Begay-1st team, Darnell Scott-2nd team, Barbara Powell-1st team, Missy Betoney-2nd team, named to All-State first team were Barbara Powell and City Begay, also, bottom.

The JV cagers faced some really tough competition this season, winning four games, and ending with a season's record of 4-13. Coach Ken Salas said that they were a really good ball club mentally, but physically they were a little bit unprepared. He also said that they are a great bunch of guys to work with and he feels that they have a lot of potential and will be an excellent ball team next year, and will hopefully improve their record.

JV too hot to handle

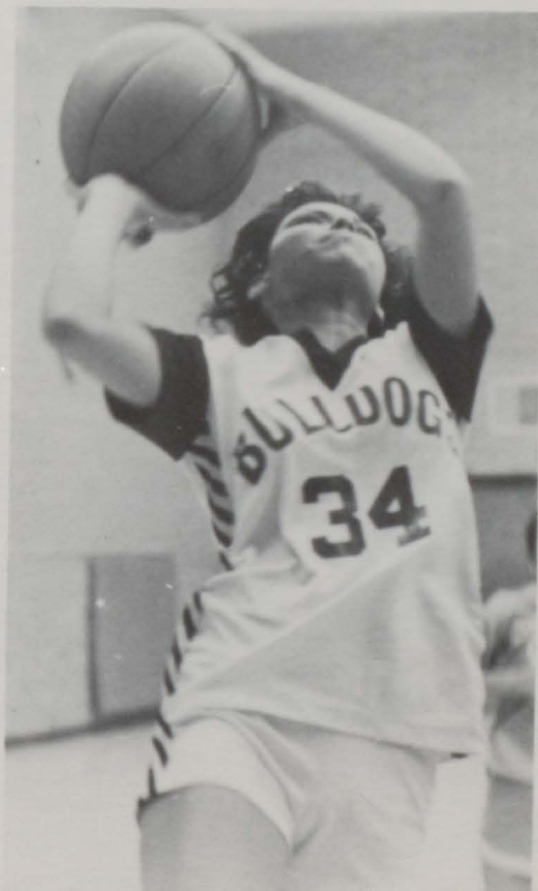

An excellent and fantastic team are words which describe the girls JV basketball team. Their season's record was 16-1, which was only one lost for the Bulldogs. The loss was against Mingus, the opening game of the season with a score of 25-36. Throughout the season, the girls played excellent ball, which should be a great factor to having another good team next year.

Don't Let Dad Do It!

If your father plans to dig holes for fence posts, trees or a swimming pool, don't let him lift a shovel until a check is made on the location of underground utility lines.

If in doubt about where to call, phone us. We'll either send someone out or refer you to the Blue Stake Underground Locating Center in your area. It's a free service. Always use it to avoid digging yourself into a dangerous situation.

Campus life full of variety

The saga's end

Wow, what a year! The finished product of a whole school year now lies in your hands. We the Meteor staff are proud of our work, and hope you enjoy it as much as we do. The staff and I have strived to bring the student body the best and broadest coverage possible of the happenings here at Winslow High.

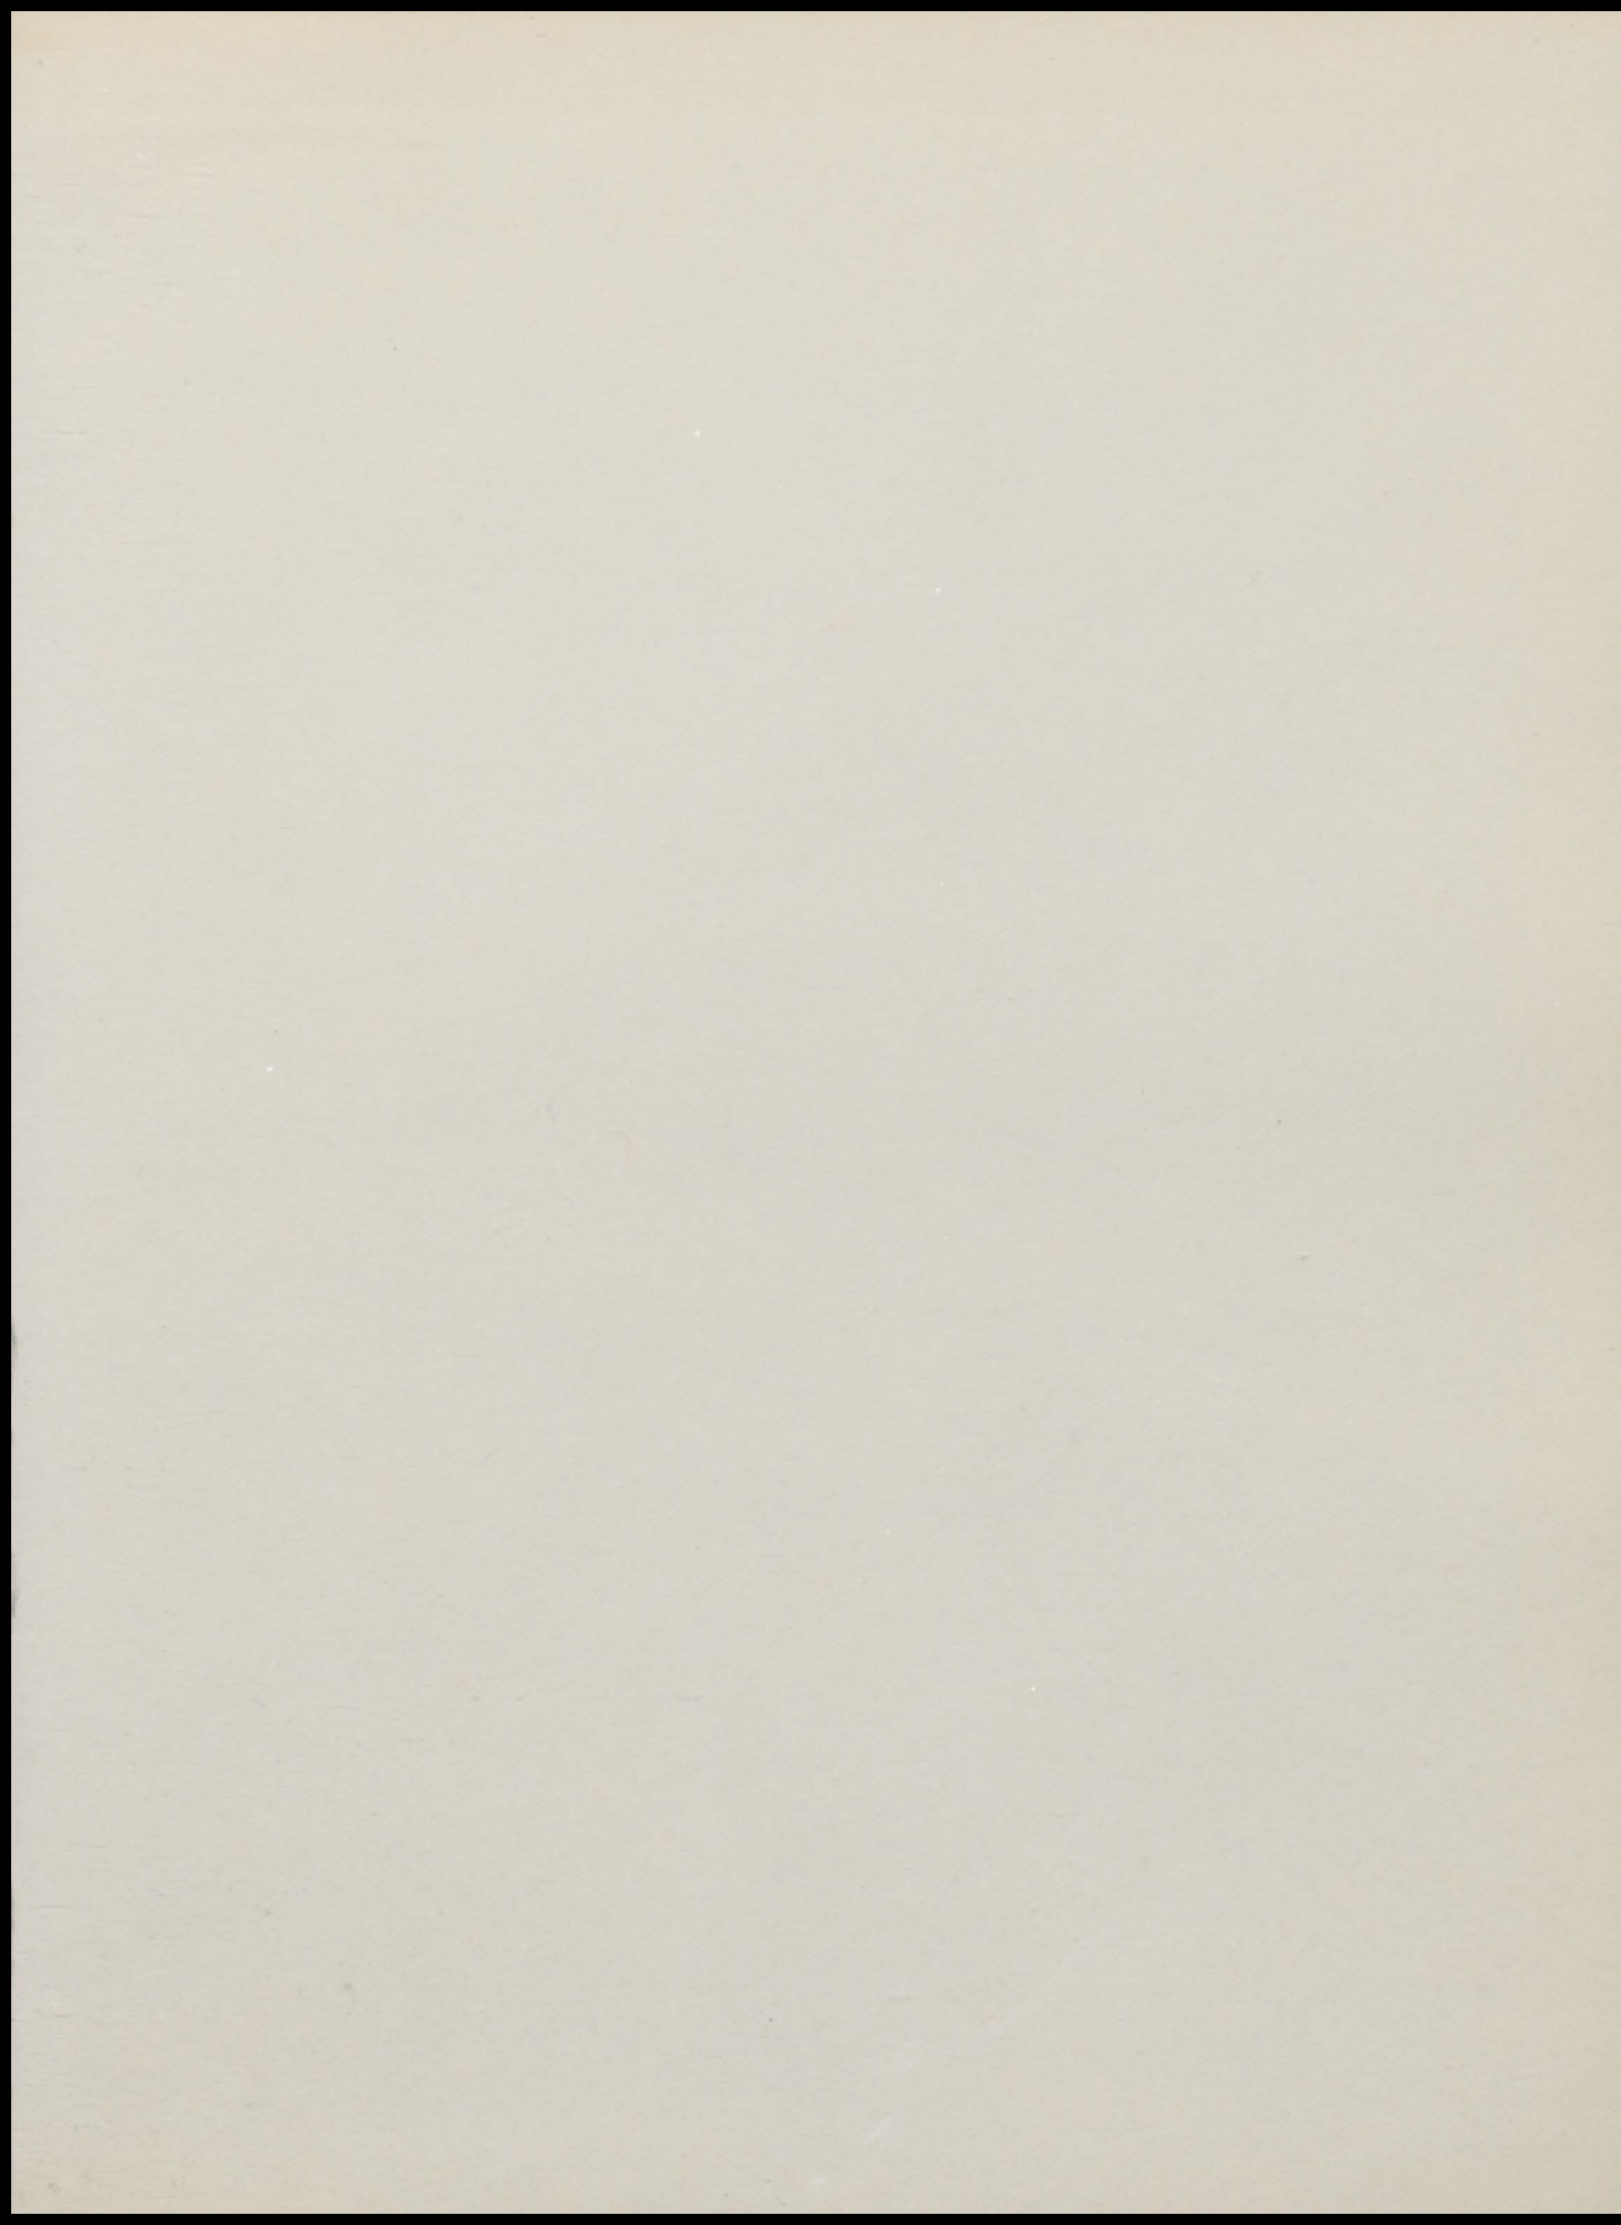

My sincere thanks to our helping and always encouraging adviser, Mrs. Roberts, the hard working staff and all the photographers who went out of their way to improve this year's book.

For their first year in Winslow High School, softball players had a fantastic season. By means of team support and hard work the Bulldogs managed to make it to state and place six girls in the all conference teams: Sara Sedillo, Teresa Whitmore, Stephanie Gore, Henri Padilla, Bernie Padilla, and Carla Darnell. Coach Martin stated that the girls did a outstanding job and he was very proud of them.

Softball girls are pictured above: seated, Henri Padilla, Lyn Cunningham, Denise Montoya, Lori Mileham, Debbie Bruchman, and Mgr. JV baseball has rough season

The J.V. team's record for the year was 4 wins, 10 losses. "The team this year was young and will be an experienced team next year," according to Coach John Henling.

Season ends in tie

The season for the varsity baseball team started slow with several inexperienced players. However, the team improved rapidly and ended the season as co-champions of AA-North with Flagstaff and Coconino. The season's record was 10 wins and 10 losses with a conference record of 6 wins and 2 losses. The team lost 6 seniors but will return 10 lettermen next year for what should prove to be a very strong team.

The boys' track team surprised a lot of people when it placed second at the AA North Divisional meet. They went on to state and placed 16th. Charles Wilhoite, lower right, placed second in long jump with a leap of 22' 4".

We tried hard

The girls' track team placed fourth at the divisional meet and ninth at state. Juniors Pam Moore and Denise Dunham, left, won the 400 in a school record 59.3 seconds, and the long jump respectively.

It was the best of times

The theme, The Best of Times, was given to the Junior Prom held May 9 at the Elks Lodge. The workers in the junior class had an exciting time decorating because of a lack of time since the Honors Banquet was held Wednesday. Though they barely finished a couple of hours before the dance, they managed to put on a beautiful Prom.
